The rule: Like + verb-ing · do / does

I / you / we / they: I like fishing. I don't like reading.
he / she / it: He likes chess. He doesn't like fishing.
Question: Do you like playing chess? Yes, I do. / No, I don't. Does he like…? Yes, he does. / No, he doesn't.

Watch out (we often say…)

~~He don't like fishing.~~	He doesn't like fishing.
~~Does he likes chess?~~	Does he like chess?
~~I like play chess.~~	I like playing chess.
