SPEAKING TEST · 20 POINTS

One student at a time, about 5 minutes. Smile, give time, repeat a question once. Don't correct during the test.

1 · About you

What's your name? How old are you?

Where do you live? Is there a park near your house?

What do you love doing? Are you good at it?

2 · Family and day

Tell me about your family. What do your parents do?

What time do you get up? What do you do after school?

What do you like to eat? Do you have any brothers or sisters?

3 · Role-play (you are the waiter or a stranger)

Café: Can I take your order? (the student orders food and asks for the check)

Street: the student asks the way to the bank and understands: Go straight. Turn left.

4 · Dream

What do you want to be? Why?

Where do you go on vacation? What do you need for a trip?

Score each student (0-5)

- ☐ Understands and answers (0-5)
- ☐ Grammar chunks (be, can, present simple I / we / they, there is, want to) (0-5)
- ☐ Words (0-5)
- ☐ Pronunciation and speed (0-5)

WHAT THE TOTAL MEANS (WRITTEN 40 + SPEAKING 20 = 60)

51-60 points: Ready for Elementary.

41-50 points: Ready for Elementary. Give the weekly review sheets of Weeks 5-8 as homework.

30-40 points: Repeat Weeks 5-8 for two weeks (reading and speaking), then take the test again.

below 30: Stay in Beginner: repeat the whole level quickly, with more speaking.
