The Tiger and the Little Jackal

Reading · story part 2 of 3

Name: _____

Date: _____

Now Sher is out. He is standing in the sun and he is smiling at Boz.

“Thank you, brother. And now I want a big dinner.”

“But you promise!” Boz says. He is very afraid.

“I am a tiger. Tigers never keep promises.”

Look! A little jackal is coming. He is listening to them.

WORDS IN THIS PART

tiger [ˈtaɪgə] — тигр

jackal [ˈdʒækɔːl] — шакал

Read it aloud twice. Then close the page and tell the part in 3 sentences. Notice the -s (he works) and the -ing (he is smelling).