The Girl Who Became the Moon

Reading · story part 3 of 3

Name: _____

Date: _____

Now it is another party. Malina is beautiful tonight. She has white jewels in her hair.

The lights are going off again! A hand is pulling her hair again!

“Give me light!” Malina shouts. Now she can see everybody.

“Show me your hands!” she says. All the hands are clean.

But look at her brother! His hand is black! Black dirt is in Malina’s hair!

Now her brother is running away. He has a fire in his hand. Malina is running after him.

They are running up into the sky. Her fire is going out. His fire is big.

Now her brother is the sun. Malina is the moon. He is running after her every day.

WORDS IN THIS PART

party [ˈpɑːti] — праздник, вечеринка hair [heə] — волосы pull [pʊl] — тянуть jewel [ˈdʒuːəl] — драгоценный камень dirt [dɜːt] — грязь, сажа
sky [skaɪ] — небо

USEFUL CHUNKS FROM THE STORY

turn off the lights — выключить свет run after — бежать за

Read it aloud twice. Then close the page and tell the part in 3 sentences. Notice the -s (he works) and the -ing (he is smelling).