The Different Family

My friend Aziz is a little different. He doesn't eat meat and he doesn't drink coffee. He drinks green tea and eats a lot of fruit.

His parents don't have a car, so they walk or take the bus. His mother doesn't work on Sundays and his father doesn't work on Saturdays. They don't watch TV in the evening. They play board games.

His sister Mohira doesn't watch TV, but she reads a lot of books. She doesn't have a phone, so she writes letters to her friends. I think their life is very peaceful.
