The Donkey That Knows the Thief

Reading · story part 2 of 3

Name: _____

Date: _____

Now it is night. There is a small tent in the yard. A donkey is standing inside it.

“This donkey is magic,” Karim says. “You go in, one by one. In the dark you put your hand on his tail. The donkey knows the thief. He cries out.”

The men are going into the tent, one by one. They are coming out again.

But the donkey is quiet. He is eating his grass.

WORDS IN THIS PART

thief [θiːf] — вор
dark [dɑːk] — тёмный tail [teɪl] — хвост tent [tent] — палатка
donkey [ˈdɒŋki] — осёл

Read it aloud twice. Then close the page and tell the part in 3 sentences. Notice the -s (he works) and the -ing (he is smelling).