The Stone That Fed a Village

Reading · story part 3 of 3

Name: _____

Date: _____

Now she is running home. She comes back with three onions!

“Wonderful! Now a little salt!” A man brings salt.

A boy brings rice. A family brings meat.

Nobody wants to give nothing!

Now everybody is eating the soup. It is delicious!

“It is a magic stone!” the people say.

In the morning the traveller washes his stone. He puts it in his bag and he walks away.

WORDS IN THIS PART

traveller [ˈtrævlə] — путник
soup [suːp] — суп
salt [sɔːlt] — соль
delicious [dɪˈlɪʃəs] — очень вкусный
stone [stəʊn] — камень
onion [ˈʌnjən] — лук
rice [raɪs] — рис

USEFUL CHUNKS FROM THE STORY

make a fire — разжечь костёр give me some — дай мне немного

Read it aloud twice. Then close the page and tell the part in 3 sentences. Notice the -s (he works) and the -ing (he is smelling).