The Bear Who Chose First

Reading · story part 3 of 3

Name: _____

Date: _____

Now it is spring again.

“This year everything under the ground is mine!” the bear says.

“Are you sure?” the crow asks. “I am sure!”

So now the crow is planting apple trees!

In the summer the trees are red. The bear is digging all day. He finds only hard roots.

The crow is sitting in the tree and she is eating apples.

Now the bear always thinks before he chooses.

WORDS IN THIS PART

bear [beə] — медведь tree [triː] — дерево
apple [ˈæpl] — яблоко crow [krəʊ] — ворона plant [plɑːnt] — сажать
root [ruːt] — корень

USEFUL CHUNKS FROM THE STORY

under the ground — под землёй
on top — сверху

Read it aloud twice. Then close the page and tell the part in 3 sentences. Notice the -s (he works) and the -ing (he is smelling).