The Fastest Rabbit in the Forest

Reading · story part 3 of 3

Name: _____

Date: _____

Now Bim is very tired. He stops and he looks back.

Far away, a turtle is sitting on the road. He is not moving.

“He never runs. I can sleep for ten minutes,” Bim says. Now Bim is sleeping under a tree.

The animals are shouting! Bim opens his eyes and he runs to the finish.

Momo is sitting there in the grass. Every animal is cheering the slowest runner in the world.

Now Bim is walking home very slowly, and a turtle is sitting on his back. Bim does not know which turtle it is.

WORDS IN THIS PART

turtle [ˈtɜːtl] — черепаха grass [grɑːs] — трава sleep [sliːp] — спать slow [sləʊ] — медленный tired [ˈtaɪəd] — усталый

USEFUL CHUNKS FROM THE STORY

in front of — перед
look back — оглянуться

Read it aloud twice. Then close the page and tell the part in 3 sentences. Notice the -s (he works) and the -ing (he is smelling).