The King Who Loved Clothes

Reading · story part 2 of 3

Name: _____

Date: _____

Now the two tailors are working every day. But look at the table! It is empty!

The king sends his old man. The old man is looking at the empty table.

“Do you see the beautiful flowers?” the tailors ask.

The old man is afraid. Clever people see the cloth! So he says, “Yes! I see them!”

Every man says the same thing. Nobody wants to be stupid.

WORDS IN THIS PART

king [kɪŋ] — король
cloth [klɒθ] — ткань
beautiful [ˈbjuːtɪfl] — красивый
tailor [ˈteɪlə] — портной stupid [ˈstjuːpɪd] — глупый

Read it aloud twice. Then close the page and tell the part in 3 sentences. Notice the -s (he works) and the -ing (he is smelling).