Day 3

Speaking and recap

This file, Day 3 pages

By the end of the week you can: "Have you finished yet?" "Yes, I've just finished." / "No, not yet." / "I've already done it!"

Let's learn! just · already · yet

Day 2 · step 1

What to do: Read the box, the class repeats. Then ask 3 students: "Have you done your homework yet?"

have / has + just / already + the 3rd form · yet at the end

Nodira has just hung a poster.	a moment ago
Bekzod has already arranged the tables.	before now (maybe early!)
Have you finished your page yet?	No, not yet. / I haven't finished it yet.

just and already go after have / has. yet goes at the end, only in questions and negatives.

just = только что · already = уже · yet = уже? (в вопросе) / ещё не (в отрицании).

"Have you finished your page yet?" "Not yet!"

Let's learn! Before now or a moment ago?

Day 2 · step 2

What to do: Students say one thing they have just done, one they have already done today, one they haven't done yet.

Look at the place of the little word
I've just eaten. (= 2 minutes ago)	have + just + 3rd form
She's already seen this film. (= no need to see it again)	has + already + 3rd form
We haven't started yet.	haven't ... yet

Look closer · Americans often say it in the past simple: I just ate. Did you finish yet? Both are correct. In class we use the present perfect.

Murphy red, Unit 16 (pages 42–43) and Unit 95 (pages 200–201)

A finished time (yesterday, at 5) → past simple: I finished it yesterday.

Say it together · The party list

Day 2 · step 3

What to do: ✓ = already, ✗ = not yet. One student asks, another answers. Then pairs. Then Exercises page 2.

✓ make the cake

✗ blow up the balloons

✓ send the invitations

✗ clean the room

✓ choose the music

✗ buy the present

1 Ask and answer

"Have they blown up the balloons yet?" "No, not yet."
