The Starfish Beach

Day 1 · 20 new words in blue · 4000 EEW 1, Unit 9

What to do: Read it aloud together, then answer the questions. The blue words are this week's 20 words.

Grandpa Rustam has lived on a small island for forty years. He has been a fisherman since he was sixteen. "I know every rock and every wave here," he says. Every summer my sister and I visit him, and every morning we walk on the beach.

One morning we discovered hundreds of starfish on the sand. A storm in the night had thrown them out of the ocean. "They can't live long out of the water," Grandpa said. "Perhaps we can save some of them." So we picked them up, one by one, and threw them back against the waves. Step by step, we walked along the beach.

A man asked us, "Why are you doing that? There are too many. You can't prevent this." My sister held up one starfish. "To be frank, I can't save all of them," she said. "But I can save this one." I felt a strong emotion. Later, Grandpa fixed his old boat, and he taught us to identify the fish in the water. We tasted his fish soup: delicious! It was a pleasant summer, and the storm didn't damage his house. I still remember that day.
