Day 1 · 20 new words in blue · 4000 EEW 1, Unit 10

What to do: Read it aloud together, then answer the questions. The blue words are this week's 20 words.

Have you ever visited a zoo? I have been to the city zoo many times, but last Sunday was special. My class went there on a school trip. Our primary goal was to learn about birds. The zoo is not far from our school, so we walked.

First, we saw a peacock on the grass. Suddenly it opened its tail: a huge fan of blue and green! It looked so proud. I took an image of it with my phone. "Peacocks have lived in zoos and parks for hundreds of years," our guide said. "The function of the tail is to look beautiful for other peacocks."

Then we had a little trouble. My friend Sardor didn't focus on the group and walked to a separate part of the zoo. A guard found him near the lions! "Please remain with your group," the guard said. Sardor said sorry. The effect was immediate: he never left us again.

After lunch we had a rest at a picnic site. Our teacher talked about the benefits of zoos: they protect animals, and it is essential to save rare birds. I am certain about one thing: I want another chance to visit. Have you ever seen a peacock open its tail? I have!

Answer

1 What was the primary goal of the trip? · 2 What did the peacock do? · 3 What trouble did Sardor have? · 4 What are the benefits of zoos?
