My Neighbor, the Artist

Day 1 · 20 new words in blue · 4000 EEW 1, Unit 12

What to do: Read it aloud together, then answer the questions. The blue words are this week's 20 words.

My neighbor Mr. Karim is an artist. He lives alone in a small apartment on the top floor, and every day I see him carry strange materials up the stairs: old bottles, wire, newspapers. "If you throw it away, I'll make art from it!" he says.

His method is unusual. He cuts the paper into shapes, and he makes long, thin birds from the wire. There is no space in his apartment anymore! Some people say he is crazy, but I like his attitude: "Everything can be beautiful."

Next month there is a big art show in the city. Professional judges are going to compare hundreds of works. "I might win," Mr. Karim says. "Or I might not! If I win, I'll buy a bigger apartment." He doesn't care about profit; he cares about quality. His best work is a big bird made of bottles: a symbol of freedom.

Yesterday a reporter from a magazine visited him. She is going to write an article about his art. After the interview, Mr. Karim cooked a meal for all of us. If the article is good, many people might come to his next show. If they come, I'll be the first in the line!

? Answer

1 Where does Mr. Karim live? · 2 What materials does he use? · 3 What will he do if he wins? · 4 What did the magazine reporter do?
