What to do: Read it aloud together, then answer the questions. The blue words are this week's 20 words.

When my grandpa was young, he lived in a small village near the mountains. "Life used to be different," he says. "We didn't use to have phones. Every evening we used to stroll to the river and relax." He had a pet dog called Barsik, and it used to follow him everywhere.

One autumn evening the weather was terrible. It was raining, and the wind was blowing. Grandpa was walking home across a field when he heard a strange voice. "Is it a ghost?" he thought. He wanted to escape, but he stayed calm. While he was looking around, Barsik ran into the trees. There was a wild goat with a hurt leg! Grandpa was very patient: he carried the goat home, and it didn't try to run away.

"That was a rare night," Grandpa says. "I made one error: I didn't avoid the dark road. But I learned a good habit: always help animals." By the time they reached the house, the goat was sleeping in his arms. The goat lived with them for two years, and it always behaved well.
