STORY B8 New Words • The Tiger and the Little Jackal

1 tiger [ˈtaɪgə] n. — тигр
A big wild cat with black lines.
→ Sher was a tiger.

2 hole [həʊl] n. — яма, дыра
An open space in the ground.
→ One day he was in a deep hole.

3 cage [keɪdʒ] n. — клетка
A box of metal bars for an animal.
→ He was in a cage!

4 hungry [ˈhʌŋgri] adj. — голодный
Needing to eat.
→ He was very hungry.

5 goat [gəʊt] n. — коза, козёл
A farm animal that eats grass.
→ Boz was an old goat.

6 help [help] v. — помогать
To do something good for somebody.
→ Help me! Please open the door!

7 stick [stɪk] n. — палка
A long thin piece of wood.
→ He opened the door with a long stick.

8 jackal [ˈdʒækɔːl] n. — шакал
A wild animal like a small dog.
→ A little jackal arrived.

9 shut [ʃʌt] adj. — закрытый
Closed.
→ Now the door was shut!

10 door [dɔː] n. — дверь
The thing you open to go into a room.
→ Please open the door!

Useful phrases from the story

come on — пойдём
Come on, Boz. We are going home.
have a good heart — быть добрым
Boz had a good heart.

The Tiger and the Little Jackal

1

Sher was a tiger. One day he was in a deep hole. He was in a cage! He was very hungry and very angry.

Boz was an old goat. He walked on the road.

“Help me! Please open the door!” Sher shouted.

“No! Tigers eat goats!” Boz said.

“I never eat goats! I eat grass! I promise!”

Boz had a good heart. He opened the door with a long stick.

2

Sher was out. He waited in the sun and he smiled at Boz.

“Thank you, brother. And now I want a big dinner.”

“But you promised!” Boz said. He was very afraid.

“I am a tiger. Tigers never keep promises.”

Look! A little jackal arrived. He listened to them.

3

“I am sorry. I am stupid,” the jackal said. “Who is in the cage? The goat?”

“No! I am in the cage!”

“I don’t understand. Where is this cage?”

Sher hurried to the hole. He jumped into the cage.

“Look! I am standing here, and the door is here!”

The jackal pushed the door. Now the door was shut!

“Now I understand everything,” the jackal said. “Come on, Boz.”

Sher stayed in his cage again. And Boz and the jackal walked home. They laughed.