The Girl Who Became the Moon

1

In the far north the winter night was very long. The people lived in the dark.

This was Malina. She was a good girl. This was her brother. He wasn't a good boy.

That night all the village was at a big party. Malina washed her hair. Then she put on her best clothes.

The people ate. They danced. The fire was warm.

2

But suddenly somebody turned off the lights! It was very dark.

A hand pulled Malina's hair! It tore her clothes!

Malina didn't see him. She ran out of the house.

She was very angry. Forty people were in that house. Who was the bad man? She didn't know.

3

The next night there was another party. Malina was beautiful. She had white jewels in her hair.

The lights went off again! A hand pulled her hair again!

"Give me light!" Malina shouted. Now she saw everybody.

"Show me your hands!" she said. All the hands were clean.

But look at her brother! His hand was black! There was black dirt in Malina's hair!

Her brother ran away. He had a fire in his hand. "I'm going to be the king of the sky!" he shouted. Malina ran after him.

They ran up into the sky. Her fire went out. His fire was big.

Her brother became the sun. Malina became the moon. And every day he runs after her.
