STORY B8 New Words • The Tiger and the Little Jackal

1 tiger [ˈtaɪgə] n. — тигр
A big wild cat with black lines.
→ Sher is a tiger.

2 hole [həʊl] n. — яма, дыра
An open space in the ground.
→ Today he is in a deep hole.

3 cage [keɪdʒ] n. — клетка
A box of metal bars for an animal.
→ He is in a cage!

4 hungry [ˈhʌŋgri] adj. — голодный
Needing to eat.
→ He is very hungry.

5 goat [gəʊt] n. — коза, козёл
A farm animal that eats grass.
→ Boz is an old goat.

6 help [help] v. — помогать
To do something good for somebody.
→ Help me! Please open the door!

7 stick [stɪk] n. — палка
A long thin piece of wood.
→ He is opening the door with a long stick.

8 jackal [ˈdʒækɔːl] n. — шакал
A wild animal like a small dog.
→ A little jackal is coming.

9 shut [ʃʌt] adj. — закрытый
Closed.
→ Now the door is shut!

10 door [dɔː] n. — дверь
The thing you open to go into a room.
→ Please open the door!

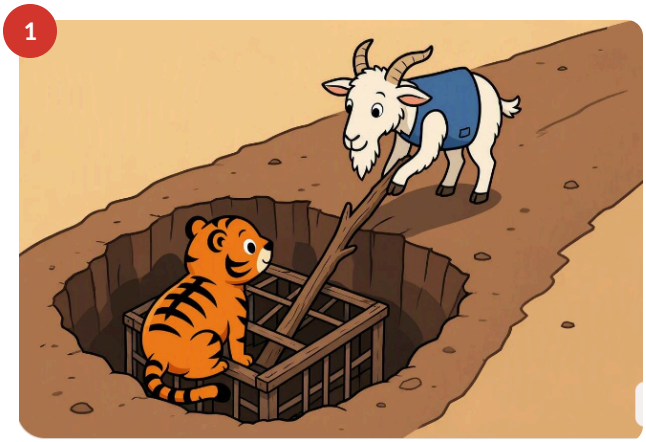

Useful phrases from the story

come on — пойдём
Come on, Boz. We are going home.

have a good heart — быть добрым
Boz has a good heart.

The Tiger and the Little Jackal

1

Sher is a tiger. Today he is in a deep hole. He is in a cage! He is very hungry and he is very angry.

Boz is an old goat. He is walking on the road now.

"Help me! Please open the door!" Sher shouts.

"No! Tigers eat goats!" Boz says.

"I never eat goats! I eat grass! I promise!"

Boz has a good heart. Now he is opening the door with a long stick.

2

Now Sher is out. He is standing in the sun and he is smiling at Boz.

"Thank you, brother. And now I want a big dinner."

"But you promise!" Boz says. He is very afraid.

"I am a tiger. Tigers never keep promises."

Look! A little jackal is coming. He is listening to them.

3

"I am sorry. I am stupid," the jackal says. "Who is in the cage? The goat?"

"No! I am in the cage!"

"I don't understand. Where is this cage?"

Now Sher is running to the hole. He is jumping into the cage.

"Look! I am standing here, and the door is here!"

The jackal pushes the door. Now the door is shut!

"Now I understand everything," the jackal says. "Come on, Boz."

Now Sher is sitting in his cage again. And Boz and the jackal are walking home. They are laughing.