STORY B3 New Words • The Stone That Fed a Village

1 traveller [ˈtrævlə] n. — путник
A person who walks from place to place.
→ A traveller is walking to a village.

2 village [ˈvɪlɪdʒ] n. — деревня
A very small town.
→ He is walking to a village.

3 fire [ˈfaɪə] n. — костёр, огонь
Hot red light that burns.
→ The traveller is making a fire.

4 stone [stəʊn] n. — камень
A small hard piece of rock.
→ He has one small round stone.

5 soup [su:p] n. — суп
Hot food that you eat with a spoon.
→ I am making soup from this stone!

6 taste [teɪst] v. — пробовать на вкус
To eat a little and see if it is good.
→ He tastes the soup.

7 onion [ˈʌnjən] n. — лук
A round white vegetable that is strong.
→ Stone soup is better with one onion.

8 salt [sɔ:lt] n. — соль
White stuff that makes food taste better.
→ Now a little salt!

9 rice [raɪs] n. — рис
Small white grains that you boil.
→ A boy brings rice.

10 delicious [dɪˈlɪʃəs] adj. — очень вкусный
Very very good to eat.
→ It is delicious!

Useful phrases from the story

make a fire — разжечь костёр
Now the traveller is making a fire.
give me some — дай мне немного
Please give me some bread.

The Stone That Fed a Village

1

A traveller is walking to a village. He is very hungry.

He knocks on a door. “Please give me some bread.”

“We have nothing!” the woman says.

Every door says the same thing. But the traveller has a good nose.

He can smell bread. He can smell meat. These people are not telling the truth!

2

Now the traveller is making a fire. He has a big pot and one small round stone.

“I am making soup from this stone!” he says.

The water is hot now. All the people are watching him.

He tastes the soup. “It is good! But stone soup is better with one onion.”

“I have an onion!” a woman says.

3

Now she is running home. She comes back with three onions!

“Wonderful! Now a little salt!” A man brings salt.

A boy brings rice. A family brings meat.

Nobody wants to give nothing!

Now everybody is eating the soup. It is delicious!

“It is a magic stone!” the people say.

In the morning the traveller washes his stone. He puts it in his bag and he walks away.