The rule: Past continuous · dates · I was born ...

Past continuous = was / were + verb-ing: an action in progress at a certain time in the past. What were you doing at 3 o'clock yesterday? I was looking at photos. They were visiting a friend.
No: wasn't / weren't + -ing. He wasn't making a smoothie. He was making a mess. Question: Was he making a smoothie? Yes, he was. / No, he wasn't. Were they going to the theater? No, they weren't.
Present continuous (now): am / is / are + -ing. Past continuous (then): was / were + -ing.
Dates in American English: we SAY 'July ninth, nineteen seventy-one', we write July 9th, 1971 (the book also uses: the ninth of July). I was born IN 1971 (a year / a month) but ON July 9th (a date).

Watch out (we often say...)

~~I looking at photos yesterday.~~	I was looking at photos yesterday.
~~They was fishing.~~	They were fishing.
~~What you were doing?~~	What were you doing?
~~I was born at 1971.~~	I was born in 1971.
