Grandma and the Goat

Day 1 · 20 new words in blue · 4000 EEW 1, Unit 6

What to do: Read it aloud together, then answer the questions. The blue words are this week's 20 words.

When Grandma Zuhra was a girl, life in her town was very different. There were no phones, so people talked face to face. The community was small, and every individual knew everybody.

Grandma had a pet goat. One winter the weather was terrible. The goat escaped from the garden and ran into the mountains. Grandma followed it for a long distance in the snow. She was cold and upset, but she didn't stop. Finally she reached an old empty house. Inside, she heard a strange voice. What a fright! "A ghost!" she thought.

It wasn't a ghost. It was an old shepherd, a wise man with a long beard. He was sitting by a fire with her goat! "Animals know where it is warm," he said. "That is their advantage. This cold can cause big problems, and not every animal survives it." In the morning, Grandma returned home with her goat. "You made a good choice," her father said. "A dead goat is no good to anybody!"

? Answer

1 How did people talk when Grandma was a girl? · 2 What happened to her goat? · 3 Who was in the old house? · 4 What did her father say?
