IELTS Turbo · Week 6 · Wednesday · Listening and Reading

Medicine and the body

1. Read the article once for meaning. 2. Read it again and look at the highlighted new words and the blue phrases in context. 3. Study the tables. 4. Use at least 5 new words in speaking or writing this week.

Article: Modern medicine: from diagnosis to recovery (180 words)

Medicine has made enormous progress. An early diagnosis can mean the difference between an easy therapy and serious surgery, and a carefully planned clinical trial tests any new drug on volunteers before it reaches the public. Doctors give a precise dose, and a pharmacist will only supply the medicine against a prescription. An antibiotic can cure a bacterial infection, but it is useless against a virus, and overuse helps bacteria to resist treatment.

The body defends itself through immunity, and a vaccine trains this system to fight a disease before it attacks. Understanding how a cell works, and how healthy tissue repairs itself, helps scientists to treat each organ separately. A sudden outbreak can turn into a pandemic when a disease spreads quickly across borders, as recent years have shown.

Long-term care also matters. A patient with a chronic disorder may need years of rehabilitation and a long period of recovery. Life-saving drugs are often expensive, which raises difficult questions of fairness. Medical teams work around the clock to come up with new treatments, but they cannot make up for healthy habits.

Useful phrases from the article

Phrase	Meaning
work around the clock	work day and night
come up with	invent
make up for	replace

The 20 new words

Word		Meaning	Example
diagnosis	n	identifying an illness	An early diagnosis saves lives.
therapy	n	treatment of a disease	Physical therapy helped his recovery.
surgery	n	medical treatment by cutting the body	She needed heart surgery.
antibiotic	n	a medicine that kills bacteria	Antibiotics do not cure viruses.
infection	n	a disease caused by germs	The infection spread quickly.
pandemic	n	a disease that spreads across the world	The pandemic changed daily life.

clinical trial	n	a test of a new medicine on people	The clinical trial involved 500 patients.
dose	n	the amount of medicine taken at one time	Take one dose every morning.
prescription	n	a doctor's written order for medicine	You need a prescription for this drug.
recovery	n	getting well again	His recovery took three months.
vaccine	n	a substance that protects from disease	The vaccine is very effective.
immunity	n	protection against disease	Immunity develops after infection.
organ	n	a part of the body with a job	The liver is a vital organ.
bacteria	n	tiny living things that can cause illness	Bacteria live in the human gut.
cell	n	the smallest unit of a living thing	Cancer begins when cells grow abnormally.
tissue	n	material from which parts of the body are made	Muscle tissue repairs itself.
disorder	n	an illness affecting the body or mind	Sleep disorders are common.
rehabilitation	n	treatment to recover strength	Rehabilitation lasted six weeks.
outbreak	n	a sudden start of a disease	An outbreak of measles closed the school.
life-saving	adj	able to save lives	Life-saving drugs are expensive.

Revision: 10 words from last week

Word		Meaning
erosion	n	the wearing away of land by water or wind glacier	n	a huge mass of slowly moving ice earthquake	n	a sudden shaking of the ground
volcano	n	a mountain that sends out hot rock
tide	n	the regular rise and fall of the sea
altitude	n	height above sea level
terrain	n	the type of land
arid	adj	very dry
humid	adj	containing a lot of moisture
flood	n	water covering normally dry land

Practice: fill the gaps

rehabilitation · diagnosis · infection · tissue · antibiotic · pandemic · recovery · disorder

1. _____ lasted six weeks.
2. An early _____ saves lives.
3. The _____ spread quickly.
4. Muscle _____ repairs itself.
5. _____ do not cure viruses.
6. The _____ changed daily life.
7. His _____ took three months.
8. Sleep _____ are common.

More words on this topic (not in the article: choose the 10 most useful for you) acute (adj): severe but short ailment (n): a minor illness allergy (n): a reaction to a substance ambulance (n): a vehicle for taking people to hospital anesthetic (n): a drug that stops pain artery (n): a blood vessel from the heart blood pressure (n): the force of blood in the vessels cancer (n): a disease of uncontrolled cells carrier (n): a person who can pass on a disease checkup (n): a routine examination contagious (adj): spreading by contact cure (n): a treatment that ends a disease donor (n): a person who gives blood or an organ fatal (adj): causing death fever (n): high body temperature fracture (n): a broken bone gene therapy (n): treating disease by changing genes heartbeat (n): the beat of the heart hormone (n): a chemical that controls body functions injection (n): medicine put in with a needle lung (n): an organ used for breathing nursing (n): looking after the sick paramedic (n): an emergency medical worker pill (n): a small tablet of medicine specialist (n): a doctor with expert knowledge stroke (n): a sudden loss of blood to the brain transplant (n): replacing an organ virus (n): a tiny germ that causes disease ward (n): a room in a hospital

Answers

1. Rehabilitation (rehabilitation)
2. diagnosis (diagnosis)
3. infection (infection)
4. tissue (tissue)
5. Antibiotics (antibiotic)
6. pandemic (pandemic)
7. recovery (recovery)
8. disorders (disorder)