The rule: Present perfect with ever and never

Have you EVER been to space? = at any time in your life up to now. Yes, I have. / No, I haven't. Has he ever climbed a volcano? Yes, he has. / No, he hasn't.
NEVER = not at any time in my life: I've never seen a volcano. She's never been to the bottom of the ocean. (never already means 'not', so NO haven't!)
go → been (when you went and came back): Have you ever been to Egypt? see → seen · fall → fallen · climb → climbed · eat → eaten · swim → swum.
Question: Have you ever + participle? Answer with short answers: Yes, I have. / No, I haven't. — not 'Yes, I did'.
Different from the past simple: Have you ever been to Egypt? (life experience, no time) vs Did you go to Egypt last year? (finished time).

Watch out (we often say...)

~~Have you ever went to a desert?~~	Have you ever been to a desert?
~~I haven't never seen a volcano.~~	I've never seen a volcano.
~~Did you ever climb a volcano?~~	Have you ever climbed a volcano?
~~Yes, I did. (to "Have you ever ...?")~~	Yes, I have.
