Grammar explained

Name _____

1 · Present perfect with ever / never

Class Book p. 10

THE BIG IDEA

Use the present perfect (have / has + past participle) to talk about actions in the past that are still important now. Ever asks about someone's life up to now. Never says what someone has not done in their life.

Present perfect: have / has + третья форма глагола. Ever — «когда-нибудь в жизни» (в вопросах). Never — «никогда».

How to make the sentence

1. Choose have (I / you / we / they) or has (he / she / it).
2. Add the past participle: made, cleaned, been, seen. (Regular: -ed. Irregular: learn them.)
3. Question: Have you ever + past participle? Short answer: Yes, I have. / No, I haven't.
4. Never = not ever: I've never made a cake. (Don't add not!)

The pattern

For — «в течение» (период: две недели). Since — «с» (точка отсчёта: с понедельника). Оба с present perfect: как долго это продолжается.

2. Is it a period (a week, three years)? Use for.
3. Is it a starting point (Monday, 2019, last year, I was eight)? Use since.

3 · Parts of a sentence: subject, verb, object, adjectives and adverbs

Class Book p. 9 · Working with words

THE BIG IDEA

A sentence has a subject (who does it), a verb (the action) and often an object (what it is done to). Adjectives describe nouns. Adverbs describe verbs.

2. Ask who / what does it? That is the subject: Joe.
3. Ask what is it done to? That is the object: lots of wood.
4. Add an adjective before a noun (heavy wood) and an adverb after a verb (works slowly).

The pattern

WHICH	PATTERN	EXAMPLE	РУССКИЙ
Subject	who / what does it	Joe has found lots of wood.	Джо нашёл много дров.
Verb	the action	Joe has found lots of wood.	нашёл
Object	what the action is done to	Joe has found lots of wood.	дрова

4 · A poem: pattern and rhythm

Class Book p. 14 · Writing

THE BIG IDEA

A poem follows a pattern. We count the syllables in each line, and some syllables are stressed (said more strongly). The stressed syllables give the poem a rhythm.

Стихотворение: счёт слогов и ударные слоги. Ударные слоги создают ритм.

How to make the sentence

1. Choose a topic: Our kite.
2. Write short lines with about the same number of syllables (e.g. 7–8).
3. Count the syllables by clapping: Last (1) week (2) we (3) made (4) a (5) big (6) kite (7).
4. Mark the stressed syllables and read aloud to feel the rhythm.

The pattern

WHICH	PATTERN	EXAMPLE	РУССКИЙ
Syllables	count the beats in a word	kite = 1 · paper = 2 · wonderful = 3	слоги: kite = 1, paper = 2
Line	about 7–8 syllables	Last week we made a big kite.	Одна строка — примерно 7–8 слогов.
Rhyme	the ends sound the same	fun – sun · wood – good	рифма
Stress	say the stressed syllable more strongly	LAST WEEK we MADE a BIG KITE	ударные слоги

Watch out! We often say...

~~Lines with very different lengths~~	Make lines about the same length
~~Not counting syllables~~	Clap and count
~~Forgetting rhyme~~	Choose rhyming words for the line ends
~~Reading all syllables the same~~	Stress some syllables

Try it! Circle or write the right answer
