1 · Indefinite pronouns (some-, any-, no-, every-) Class Book p. 100

THE BIG IDEA

Indefinite pronouns talk about people, things and places that we don't name. They are made from some-, any-, no-, every- + one / body, thing, where.

Неопределённые местоимения: someone, something, somewhere, anything, nothing, everyone, everything, everywhere. Не называем, кто / что / где именно.

How to make the sentence

1. Choose what you mean: a person (-one), a thing (-thing), a place (-where).
2. Choose the start: some- (yes, there is), any- (questions and no), no- (zero), every- (all).
3. Join them: some + thing = something; every + where = everywhere.
4. Use a singular verb: Everyone is here. Everything was ready. (with -one / -thing = he / it)

The pattern

WHICH	PATTERN	EXAMPLE	РУССКИЙ
some-	someone · something · somewhere	There is something wrong with all of my inventions.	Что-то не так с моими изобретениями.

2 · Question tags Class Book p. 101

THE BIG IDEA

Question tags are tiny questions at the end of a sentence. They mean "Am I right?" or "Do you agree?". A positive sentence gets a negative tag. A negative sentence gets a positive tag.

Разделительные вопросы: «..., не так ли?». К утверждению — отрицательный хвост, к отрицанию — утвердительный. Хвост повторяет вспомогательный глагол.

How to make the sentence

1. Write the sentence: These necklaces are beautiful.
2. Find the helper verb: are. (No helper? Use do / does / did.)
3. Add the opposite tag: positive → negative (aren't they?), negative → positive (can we?).
4. Use the same person as a pronoun: The Egyptian room → isn't it? The girls → aren't they?

4 · Making writing more interesting (a question and the senses)

Class Book p. 104 · Writing

THE BIG IDEA

We can make writing more interesting by starting with a question and by using the senses: what we can see, hear, smell, taste and touch.

Чтобы текст был интереснее: задай вопрос читателю и опиши пять чувств — что видишь, слышишь, чувствуешь запах, вкус, на ощупь.

How to make the sentence

1. Start with a question to the reader: Have you ever wondered what life was like in ancient Rome?
2. Pick a moment from your story and ask: what could I hear / see / smell / taste / touch?
3. Write it in the past: I could smell fresh bread as I walked through the noisy streets.
4. Add feelings: I felt scared because the rooms were small and dark.

The pattern

WHICH	PATTERN	EXAMPLE	РУССКИЙ

Hear / smell	I could smell / hear noun	I could smell fresh bread from the bakeries.	Я чувствовал запах свежего хлеба.
See	I could see / I saw noun	Suddenly, I saw the Colosseum in front of me.	Вдруг я увидел Колизей.
Feel	I felt adjective because ...	I felt scared, because the rooms were small and dark.	Мне было страшно, потому что комнаты были тёмными.
