Murphy explained

Name _____

M1 · Unit 99 · If we go ... / If you see ... (first conditional)

Murphy Unit 99 · pp. 208–209

THE BIG IDEA

Use if + present simple for something that may happen, and will + base verb for the result. Never use will after if.

If + настоящее время (условие), will + глагол (результат). После if — без will.

How to make the sentence

1. Say the condition with if + present simple: If it rains,
2. Say the result with will + base verb: we will stay at home.
3. You can swap the parts: We will stay at home if it rains.
4. No: If you don't hurry, you'll miss the bus.

The pattern

WHICH	PATTERN	EXAMPLE	РУССКИЙ
Yes	If present simple, will base verb	If we go by bus, we'll be late.	Если поедем на автобусе, опоздаем.
No	If don't / doesn't base verb, will base verb	If you don't hurry, you'll miss the bus.	Если не поторопишься, опоздаешь.
Swap	will base verb if present simple	I'll call you if I have time.	Я позвоню, если будет время.
Question	What will you do if present simple?	What will you do if it rains?	Что ты будешь делать, если пойдёт дождь?
Rule	NO will after if	If it rains (not: will rain)

Watch out! We often say...

~~If it will rain~~	If it rains
~~If I will see him~~	If I see him
~~If she don't come~~	If she doesn't come
~~If you will hurry~~	If you hurry

4. What ___ you do if it rains? (will / do)

M2 · Unit 98 · When ... (when + present for the future) Murphy Unit 98 · pp. 206–207

THE BIG IDEA

After when (and after as soon as, before, after) we use the present simple for the future, not will. The result part uses will.

После when / before / after / as soon as о будущем — present simple (не will). Результат — will.

How to make the sentence

1. Say the time part with when + present simple: When I get home,
2. Say the result with will: I'll call you.
3. Do NOT say: When I will get home.
4. Same with before, after, as soon as: I'll call you as soon as I arrive.

The pattern
