Speaking · 12 sets · for the teacher

How to use it. Pick a set, read the questions, point to the words. Let students answer in their own way: the green line is only a model. The first sets push today's grammar, the middle sets bring back older grammar, and the last sets are open and creative.

1 Tom and Edward

ABOUT ME

Push these words: poor · rich · prince · pauper

Who is Tom? Who is Edward?
→ Tom is a poor boy. Edward is a prince.

Where do they live?
→ Tom lives in a poor street. Edward lives in a palace.

What is the same about them?
→ They look the same.

What is different?
→ Their clothes and their lives are different.

2 The swap

IMAGINE

Push these words: swap · clothes · look the same · surprised

Why do they swap clothes?
→ They look the same, so they want to try the other life.

What does Tom wear?
→ He wears the prince's rich clothes.

What does the prince wear?
→ He wears Tom's old clothes.

Do the guards know?
→ No, they don't. They are surprised later.

3 Life in the palace

IMAGINE

Push these words: palace · servants · food · rules

What is there in a palace?
→ There are servants, big rooms and a lot of food.

What must you do in a palace?
→ You must be polite and you must listen to the king.

What mustn't you do?
→ You mustn't shout or run.

Would you like to live in a palace? Why?
→ No, I wouldn't. There are too many rules.

4 Life in the street

IMAGINE

Push these words: poor · cold · hungry · work

What is life like for a poor boy?
→ It's hard. He's often cold and hungry.

What does he do all day?
→ He works and helps his family.

What does he not have?
→ He doesn't have warm clothes or a nice bed.

Is he sad? Why not?
→ He isn't always sad, because he has a family.

5 What if I were a prince?

IMAGINE

Push these words: prince · palace · generous · ask

Imagine you are a prince for one day. What do you do?
→ I eat a lot of cake and I meet the king.

Are you generous?
→ Yes, I am. I give food to poor people.

What do you ask?
→ I ask: 'Where is my horse?'

What is difficult?
→ It's difficult to sit and be quiet.

6 Nobody believes him

IMAGINE

Push these words: believe · guard · shout · old clothes

Why doesn't anybody believe the prince?
→ Because he wears old clothes.

What does he shout?
→ He shouts: 'I'm the prince!'

What do the guards say?
→ They say: 'You are a poor boy.'

How does the prince feel?
→ He feels angry and sad.

7 Rich and poor

OPINION

Push these words: rich · poor · happy · money

Is a rich person always happy? Why?
→ No, he isn't. Money doesn't make you happy.

What do poor people need?
→ They need food, clothes and a home.

What can you do to help?
→ I can give old toys and clothes.

What is more important: money or friends?
→ Friends are more important.

8 Past and present

ABOUT ME

Push these words: was · is · yesterday · now

Tom was a poor boy. Is he rich now?
→ No, he isn't. He goes back to his street.

What did Edward learn?
→ He learned how poor people live.

What do you learn from the story?
→ I learn that money isn't everything.

Is the story old or new?
→ It's old, but it's interesting.

9 Retell the story

ABOUT ME

Push these words: first · then · next · finally

Retell the story in five sentences.
→ First Tom and Edward met. Then they swapped clothes. Next Tom went to the palace. After that the guards sent Edward away. Finally they changed places again.

What was the problem?
→ Nobody believed the prince.

What was the solution?
→ Tom told the truth.

What is your favorite part?
→ I like the swap.

10 A different ending

IMAGINE

Push these words: ending · stay · palace · change

Imagine a different ending. What happens?
→ Tom stays in the palace.

What does Edward do?
→ He lives in the street and learns to work.

Is it fair? Why?
→ No, it isn't, because the king is sad.

Which ending is better?
→ The real ending is better.

11 A dialogue

IMAGINE

Push these words: guard · prince · please · open

You are the prince. Ask the guard to open the door.
→ Please open the door. I'm the prince.

The guard says: 'You're a poor boy!' What do you say?
→ I'm not poor! Look at my face. It's the same.

The guard laughs. What do you do?
→ I shout: 'Call the king!'

What does the guard answer?
→ He says: 'Go away!'
