The Little Goats and the Wolf

Story 1 · Words first

Name _____

Learn these words first Then read the story on page 2 Then close the page and retell it

10 WORDS

goat
козёл, козочка

market
рынок

careful осторожный

knock стучать

voice голос

rough грубый, хриплый

soft мягкий, нежный

paws
лапы

flour
мука

tail
хвост

SAY IT WITH THE WORDS

There was a mother goat. She had three little goats. They were cheerful and clever.

You mustn't open the door. Be careful!

His voice was rough, but our mother's voice is soft.

YOUR TURN

Write one sentence with was or had about the wolf: _____

_____

The Little Goats and the Wolf

Read, then retell

1 Once upon a time, there was a mother goat. She had three little goats. They were small, cheerful and clever. Their house was in a green forest.

2 One morning, Mother goes to the market. “Be careful,” she says. “A wolf is in the forest. You mustn't open the door!” “Don't worry, Mom!” say the little goats.

3 Soon somebody is knocking. “Open the door, children. I'm your mother,” says a voice. The voice is very rough. “No!” shout the goats. “Our mother's voice is soft!”

4 The wolf eats some honey. Now his voice is soft. He knocks again. “Show us your paws!” say the goats. Under the door they see big black paws. “Our mother has white paws!”

5 The wolf is angry. He puts flour on his paws, but his long black tail is behind him! The goats laugh. Then Mother comes home, and the wolf runs away. He never comes back.

RETELL IT. USE THE PICTURES AND THESE QUESTIONS.

Who?	Where?	What was the rule?	How did it end?
mother goat · three little goats · the wolf	a house in the forest	You mustn't open the door.	the wolf runs away