Lola's Favorite Series

Lola's favorite series is a detective show called “The Last Clue”. “It's such a great show!” she says. “It's so exciting that I watched all five seasons in two weeks.”

There are so many mysteries in every episode, and the actors are so good that you forget you are watching television. The soundtrack is excellent too. Lola has already told all her friends about it, and now they are watching it together on Fridays.

But there is one problem. The finale was so sad that Lola cried for an hour, and she is not sure about the next season. “It was such an unexpected ending,” she says. “I'm so angry and so happy at the same time!” Would you start watching a series like that?
