Aziza's Plan

Aziza is sixteen, and she has a very clear plan for her life. “This time next year,” she says, “I'll be studying at a college in Tashkent. I'll be living in the dormitory and learning graphic design.”

“In five years I'll be doing an internship at a big company. I won't be earning much money, but I'll be learning a lot. In ten years I hope I'll be working as a designer, and I'll be living in my own apartment.”

Her brother laughs. “What will you be doing at 9 am on your first working day?” he asks. “I'll be sitting in my new office,” says Aziza. “And I won't be sleeping, like you!” They both laugh. Planning the future is fun, isn't it?
