SPEAKING TEST · 20 POINTS

One student at a time, about 8 minutes. Smile, give time, repeat a question once. Don't correct during the test.

1 · About you and a story

Tell me about a trip or a weekend you loved. What did you do? How was it?

Tell me about something that happened to you while you were doing something else (past simple and past continuous).

What did you use to do when you were little?

2 · Experiences and time

Have you ever tried an extreme sport? Where have you been?

How long have you studied English? How long have you lived in your city?

What have you already done today, and what haven't you done yet?

3 · Imagination and rules

What would you do if you won a lot of money? Why?

What do your parents let you do, and what do they make you do?

Tell me about a thing in your home: what is it made of, where was it made, what is it used for?

4 · Role-play and the future

Airport: the student asks you three polite questions (Could you tell me where...? Do you know if...?). You are the clerk.

The student tells you what a friend said yesterday (reported speech).

What will you be doing in ten years?

Score each student (0-5)

- ☐ Understands and answers (0-5)
- ☐ Grammar (past, perfect, future, conditionals, passive, modals) (0-5)
- ☐ Words and phrases (0-5)
- ☐ Pronunciation and fluency (0-5)

WHAT THE TOTAL MEANS (WRITTEN 60 + SPEAKING 20 = 80)

69-80 points: Ready for Intermediate.

56-68 points: Ready for Intermediate. Give the weekly review sheets of Weeks 10-13 as homework.

40-55 points: Repeat Weeks 9-13 for two weeks (reading and speaking), then take the test again.

below 40: Stay in Pre-Intermediate: repeat the whole level quickly, with more speaking.
