What were you doing?

Reading

Name: _____

Date: _____

Four O'Clock on Navoi Street

It was a Friday afternoon. The sun was shining and the streets were full of people. A boy was riding his bike on the sidewalk, two girls were walking to school and a man was talking on his phone.

At four o'clock a car was driving fast along Navoi Street. A woman was crossing the road with a heavy bag. Her little son was holding her hand. A dog was running behind them.

Suddenly the driver saw them and stopped. Everybody was looking at the car and nobody was moving. Then the woman smiled, picked up her bag and said, “Thank you!”

WORD HELP

sidewalk — тротуар

hold — держать

Read it aloud two times. Then close the page and tell your partner three things you remember.