Cities I Have Visited

I love old cities. I have visited Bukhara, Khiva and Samarkand, and each of them is different. In Bukhara I have walked through the old bazaars where traders sold carpets hundreds of years ago.

I have also been to Khiva twice. The first time I went there with my school; we stayed inside the old walls and climbed the tower. The second time I went with my parents, and my father has taken a thousand photos since then!

Samarkand is my favorite. I have seen the Registan in the morning and at night, and I have never seen anything more beautiful. Now I want to visit a place outside Uzbekistan. I have already chosen it: Istanbul.
