HOW IT WORKS · 1

just: a moment ago

The president has just arrived. ✓

Президент только что прибыл.

I've just read the news. ✓

Я только что прочитал новости.

They've just announced the winner. ✓

Они только что объявили победителя.

just = a moment ago · it goes between have / has and the participle

just — только что, между have / has и третьей формой

Americans also say: I just ate. (past simple)

Американцы говорят и так: I just ate.

Use it for very fresh news

Для самых свежих новостей

HOW IT WORKS · 2

already: earlier than expected

She's already left. ✓ Она уже ушла.

I've already seen it. ✓
Я это уже видел.

They've already published the article. ✓
Они уже опубликовали статью.

already = earlier than expected · in positive sentences
already — уже, в утверждениях

Place: have + already + participle
Место: have + already + третья форма

In questions it shows surprise: Has she left already?
В вопросе — удивление

HOW IT WORKS · 3

yet: until now

They haven't found him yet. ✓

Они его ещё не нашли.

Have you read the article yet? ✓

Ты уже прочитал статью?

Not yet. I'll read it later. ✓

Ещё нет. Я прочитаю позже.

yet = until now · in negatives and questions, at the end

yet — до сих пор, в конце отрицания или вопроса

Short answer: Not yet.

Краткий ответ: Not yet.

Americans also say: Did you eat yet?

Американцы говорят и так: Did you eat yet?

HOW IT WORKS · 4

News flash

Police have just	found the missing boy.
The reporter has already	published the story.
The editor hasn't	read the article yet.
Have they	announced the winner yet?

Headlines use the present perfect: Scientists have found water

В заголовках — present perfect

Then the details come in the past simple: It happened at 6 am

Подробности — в past simple

WATCH OUT

Four mistakes to avoid

The president has just arrive. ✗ → The president has just arrived. ✓

participle: arrived

I have yet read the article. ✗ → I haven't read the article yet. ✓

yet — в конце, в отрицании

She already has left. ✗ → She has already left. ✓ already после has

They have just announced it yesterday. ✗ → They announced it yesterday. ✓

yesterday → past simple
