Navruz Plans

Navruz is coming and everybody in our street is busy. My mother is cooking sumalak with the neighbors on Friday. She is starting at midnight and the women are singing all night.

On Saturday there is a street fair near the concert hall. My cousins are arriving from Samarkand in the morning and we are all going to the fair together. A famous band is playing on the main stage at six, and at nine the fireworks are starting.

On Sunday I am not doing anything special: I am sleeping late! But on Monday I am meeting my friends and we are planning a picnic. What are you doing for Navruz?
