LESSON PACK · WEEK 9 · LESSON 1 · RULES AND THE LAW

Rules then and now

Grammar · Obligation in the past and future: had to / will have to (+ have to vs must)

Words · Laws and society

BY THE END YOU CAN SAY

My dad had to wear a uniform at school.

You'll have to get a visa.

WARM-UP · ELEMENTARY IS STILL ALIVE

Let's talk first

1. Elementary: What do you have to do every day? What can't you do at school? Say two sentences.

   Elementary: Что ты должен делать каждый день? Что нельзя делать в школе? Скажи два предложения.

2. What did you have to do when you were small? Say one sentence.

   Что тебе приходилось делать, когда ты был маленьким? Скажи одно предложение.

DID YOU KNOW?

Americans use have to for rules in speaking; must is mostly for signs and written rules.

В американском английском в речи чаще have to; must — для знаков и письменных правил.

HOW IT WORKS · 1

have to · had to · will have to

Today I have to wear a uniform. ✓

Сегодня я должен носить форму.

My dad had to wear a uniform at school. ✓

Моему папе приходилось носить форму в школе.

You'll have to get a visa next year. ✓

В следующем году тебе придётся оформить визу.

have to (now) · had to (past) · will have to (future)

have to — сейчас, had to — в прошлом, will have to — в будущем

It is necessary: the rule comes from outside (law, school, parents)

Необходимость: правило идёт извне must has no past or future: use had to and will have to

У must нет прошедшего и будущего

HOW IT WORKS · 2

Negatives and questions

We didn't have to wear a uniform. ✓

Нам не нужно было носить форму.

Did you have to get a visa? ✓

Тебе нужно было оформлять визу?

You won't have to pay a fine. ✓

Тебе не придётся платить штраф.

Negative: didn't have to + verb = it was not necessary

didn't have to — не было необходимости

Question: Did you have to...? · Will we have to...?

Вопросы с did и will

don't have to = not necessary · mustn't = forbidden

don't have to — не обязательно, mustn't — запрещено

SPEAKING

Laws then and now

1. In groups, write 3 rules that people had to follow 50 years ago and 3 rules we have to follow today.
2. Write 2 rules that we will have to follow in 2050 (invent them!).
3. Read your rules. The other group guesses: past, present or future?
4. Vote for the funniest future rule.

EXAMPLE

A 50 years ago people had to write letters by hand.

B Now we don't have to. We send messages.

A In 2050 we will have to drive electric cars.

B And we won't have to buy gasoline!

have to (now) · had to (past) · will have to (future). Don't use must for the past or the future.
