Writing: My plans for the week: a to-do email

Day 2 · Writing

What to do: Discuss first (exercise 1), then write in the copybook at home or in class.

Murphy today
Murphy red, Unit 16 (page 43): 16.3, 16.4 at home. Do the grammar file first.

1 Warm-up: talk before you write (5 minutes, in pairs)

1. What do you have to do this week? Make a list of five things.
2. Which of them have you already done?
3. Which have you not done yet? Why not?
4. Have you ever put something off until the last day? What happened?
5. Who can help you with your plans?
6. How do you arrange your time: on paper, on the phone, in your head?
7. What is the most important thing for you this week? Why?
8. How do you feel when you finish everything? What do you do next?

Choose one topic and tell it to your partner. The partner asks one more question for each of the first 3 answers.

2 Useful words

already · just · yet · so far · first · after that · finally · I am going to…

Unit 8 words: arrange · attend · accept · necessary · purpose · success · balance · single

3 The plan: 4 short paragraphs, 100–130 words

1 · Introduction	Why are you writing? What is your main plan for the week? (going to)
2 · Body 1	What have you already done? What have you just finished? (present perfect + already / just)
3 · Body 2	What have you not done yet? What do you need help with? (not … yet)
4 · Conclusion	What will you do next? End politely.

Model and your task

Day 2 · Writing

What to do: In the model: the position of just, already and yet.

Email to my teacher

Dear Mr Aliyev,

I am writing about the school concert on Friday. I am going to read a poem, and I want to arrange a short rehearsal with you on Thursday.

So far I have already learned the poem and I have just finished the poster for the concert. I have also accepted the invitation of my cousin, who will come to the concert. But I haven't practiced the last verse yet, and I haven't asked my father to take photos.

Could you help me with the last verse? Please tell me if Thursday at four is possible. Thank you very much!

Best wishes, Dilnoza

A Choose ONE: an email about my plans

Write 100–130 words. Follow the plan. Use already, just and yet at least twice each, going to once, and 3 words from Unit 8.

B Or: my to-do list with notes

Write 8 lines: Do my homework ✓ — I have already done it. Call Ali ✗ — I haven't called him yet.

Check before you finish
