Writing: A place I have known for a long time

Day 2 · Writing

What to do: Discuss first (exercise 1), then write in the copybook at home or in class.

Murphy today
Murphy red, Unit 19 (page 49): 19.2, 19.3 at home. Do the grammar file first.

1 Warm-up: talk before you write (5 minutes, in pairs)

1. Which place do you know very well: a beach, a street, a village, a park?
2. How long have you known this place?
3. How often do you go there? Who goes with you?
4. What has changed there since you were small?
5. What has never changed?
6. Which sounds, smells and tastes remind you of it?
7. What has this place taught you?
8. Would you take a friend there? Why?

Choose one topic and tell it to your partner. The partner asks one more question for each of the first 3 answers.

2 Useful words

for · since · ever since · all my life · It has changed · It has never changed · I have known it for...

Unit 9 words: beach · island · ocean · wave · pleasant · discover · taste · save · emotion

3 The plan: 4 short paragraphs, 120–150 words

1 · Introduction	What is the place and where is it? How long have you known it? (for / since)
2 · Body 1	What do you do there? What is it like? Describe the sounds, smells and tastes.
3 · Body 2	What has changed? What has stayed the same? (present perfect)
4 · Conclusion	What does this place mean to you?

Model and your task

Day 2 · Writing

What to do: In the model: for and since for how long, the present perfect for the changes.

My Grandfather's Island

I have known a little island in the Caspian Sea, near my grandfather's house, for ten years. I have visited it every summer since I was six, and I have never been bored there.

Every day we swim, catch fish and sit on the rocks. The air has a salty smell, and the waves make a quiet music. At night we make a fire and my grandfather tells stories about the sea.

Of course, some things have changed. There are more tourists, and I have seen more plastic on the beach. But the water is still clear, and my grandfather has never left the island. I have promised to come back every year.

This island is more than a holiday place for me. It has taught me to look, to listen and to save what we love.

A Choose ONE: a place I have known for a long time

Write 120–150 words. Follow the plan. Use for and since at least 3 times each, the present perfect at least 5 times and 4 words from Unit 9.

B Or: a postcard from an island

Write 70–90 words. Dear ..., We have been on the island for three days. The weather has been... We have already seen... I have never tasted...
