Writing: My experience: a journey or an achievement

Day 2 · Writing

What to do: Discuss first (exercise 1), then write in the copybook at home or in class.

Murphy today
Murphy review: Unit 17 (page 45): 17.4 and Unit 18 (page 47): 18.4 at home.

1 Warm-up: talk before you write (5 minutes, in pairs)

1. What is the most difficult thing you have ever done?
2. When did you do it? How old were you?
3. Who helped you? What did they say?
4. What was the biggest challenge? What did you do?
5. How did you feel at the end?
6. What have you learned from it?
7. What have you done since then?
8. What is your next goal?

Choose one topic and tell it to your partner. The partner asks one more question for each of the first 3 answers.

2 Useful words

so far · since then · for… · I have never… · In 2020 · Last year · The first time · It was the best…

Units 7–10 words: challenge · proud · success · chance · famous · protect · island · discover

3 The plan: 4 short paragraphs, 130–160 words

1 · Introduction	What is your achievement? How long have you been interested? (present perfect with for / since)
2 · Body 1	When and how did it happen? (past simple, finished time)
3 · Body 2	What have you learned so far? What have you done since then? (present perfect)
4 · Conclusion	Your next goal.

Model and your task

Day 2 · Writing

What to do: In the model: present perfect for the experience, past simple for the day.

My First Race

I have loved running since I was ten. I have run in many places, but my best experience was my first race last spring.

It was in April, in a park near my house. I arrived early and I was nervous, because there were about two hundred people. The challenge was five kilometers. At the start, a girl next to me said: “Be proud that you are here.” That helped me a lot. I ran slowly and I did not stop. In the end I finished in the middle, but I was happy.

Since then I have joined a club, and I have learned a lot about breathing and food. I have already run three more races, and I have never given up. My time has improved from 35 to 29 minutes.

My next goal is ten kilometers. I think a small step is the beginning of a big success.

A Choose ONE: my experience or achievement

Write 130–160 words. Follow the plan. Use for / since twice, the present perfect at least 4 times, the past simple at least 4 times, and 4 words from Units 7–10.

B Or: an email to a friend

Write 100–130 words. Hi ..., I have just... Last month I... I have never... Since then I have... Write soon!

Check before you finish

4 paragraphs · for / since · present perfect for experience · past simple for the finished time · 4 Unit 7–10 words · capital letters and full stops
