Writing: If I could change my street: a plan with art

Day 2 · Writing

What to do: Discuss first (exercise 1), then write in the copybook at home or in class.

Murphy today
Murphy red, Unit 99 (page 209): 99.2, 99.3 at home; Unit 98 (page 207): 98.3. Do the grammar file first.

1 Warm-up: talk before you write (5 minutes, in pairs)

1. Look at your street or your school. What would you like to change?
2. What colors or pictures might make it better?
3. Who might help you: neighbors, artists, teachers?
4. What materials will you need?
5. What might go wrong? What will you do if it does?
6. If people like it, what might happen next?
7. What symbol would you put on the wall? Why?
8. Who will see your work? What might they feel?

Choose one topic and tell it to your partner. The partner asks one more question for each of the first 3 answers.

2 Useful words

If..., ...will · If..., ...might · unless · maybe · perhaps · I think...will · The first step is... · In the end

Unit 12 words: artist · material · quality · symbol · neighbor · space · attitude · professional

3 The plan: 4 short paragraphs, 120–150 words

1 · Introduction	Which street or wall do you want to change? Why? (present simple)
2 · Body 1	The plan: who, what material, what picture. (will / going to)
3 · Body 2	What might happen? Use if + present, will / might. Use unless once.
4 · Conclusion	What will be different in the end? What do you hope?

Model and your task

Day 2 · Writing

What to do: In the model: if + present, will; might for possibilities.

A Gray Wall Can Smile

There is a long gray wall behind my school. Every day hundreds of students pass it, but nobody looks at it. I want to make it colorful, because I think a nice wall can change the attitude of people.

My plan is simple. First I will ask the director, and then I will invite a professional artist to help us. We will need paint, brushes and a few ladders. Dilnoza says she will draw the symbols of our city: the Registan and a blue dome.

Of course, something might go wrong. If it rains, we will wait for a sunny day. If the paint is too expensive, we might ask the neighbors for help. Unless the director agrees, we cannot start, so I will bring a drawing.

If everything goes well, the wall will be the best place in the school. Maybe other students will paint walls, too. A small idea might change a whole street.

A Choose ONE: if I could change my street

Write 120–150 words. Follow the plan. Use if + present, will at least 3 times, might at least 2 times, unless once, and 4 words from Unit 12.

B Or: a letter to the mayor

Write 100–120 words. Dear Mayor, I am writing about… If you agree, we will… We might need… Unless… Thank you for your time.

Check before you finish

4 paragraphs · if + present, will / might · unless · maybe / perhaps · 4 Unit 12 words · capital letters and full stops