Writing: Final writing: my English journey

Day 2 · Writing

What to do: Discuss first (exercise 1), then write in the copybook at home or in class.

Murphy today
No Murphy at home this week: revise the Study guide (page 271).

1 Warm-up: talk before you write (5 minutes, in pairs)

1. When did you start learning English? Why?
2. What was the hardest thing at the beginning?
3. What has changed since then?
4. Which story or lesson of this course did you like most?
5. What have you learned about yourself?
6. Which skill is the best now: speaking, listening, reading or writing?
7. What are you going to do to improve?
8. What do you think you will be able to do in a year?

Choose one topic and tell it to your partner. The partner asks one more question for each of the first 3 answers.

2 Useful words

When I started… · Since then… · I used to… · I have learned… · I am going to… · I think I will… · If I practice…

Use at least 8 words from the course: afraid · calm · famous · success · proud · prepare · decision · challenge

3 The plan: 4 short paragraphs, 150–180 words

1 · Introduction	When and why did you start English? (past simple, used to)
2 · Body 1	What was difficult then, and what is easy now? (past simple and present perfect)
3 · Body 2	What have you learned? Which lesson did you enjoy most, and why?
4 · Conclusion	Your plans: going to, will, if.

Model and your task

Day 2 · Writing

What to do: In the model: all the tenses of the course in one text.

My English Journey

I started learning English when I was nine, because I wanted to understand the songs I loved. In the beginning I used to be afraid of speaking. I was nervous, and I did not know many words.

Since then I have changed a lot. In this course I learned to tell a story, to ask questions and to describe a scene. The hardest thing was the present perfect, but now I use it every day. I have also read twelve stories, and my favorite was “The Starfish”.

I am proud of my progress. I have discovered that a small habit, like ten new words a day, makes a big difference. I have never given up, even when the grammar was a challenge.

My plan is to read a book every month. If I practice every day, I think I will pass an English exam next year. I am going to travel and talk to people from other countries.

A Choose ONE: my English journey

Write 150–180 words. Follow the plan. Use the past simple, the present perfect, used to, going to, will and if, and 8 words from the course.

B Or: a letter to a younger student

Write 120–150 words: advice for someone who starts English. Dear ..., When I started... I have learned that... If you practice... I think you will...

Check before you finish

4 paragraphs · past, present perfect and future · 8 course words · capital letters and full stops
