Writing: A day I will never forget

Day 2 · Writing

What to do: Discuss first (exercise 1), then write in the copybook at home or in class.

Murphy today
Murphy red, Unit 13, page 37: 13.3, 13.4 at home (see the grammar file). Unit 13 and the grammar file first, then this page.

1 Warm-up: talk before you write (5 minutes, in pairs)

1. Think of a day when something unexpected happened. Where were you?
2. What was the weather like? What were the people around you doing?
3. What was the first thing you noticed?
4. How did you feel at that moment: calm, scared, excited?
5. What did you do next? Did somebody help you?
6. How did it end?
7. Do you think you did the right thing? Why or why not?
8. What did you learn from that day?

Choose one story and tell it to your partner. The partner asks one more question for each of the 3 first answers.

2 Useful words for a story

At first · Suddenly · While · As soon as · At that moment · After that · In the end

The scene: was / were + -ing · the events: past simple · the Unit 4 words: village · calm · patient · avoid · behave · stroll

3 The plan: 4 short paragraphs, 120–150 words

1 · Introduction	When and where were you? What was the weather like? What were you and other people doing? (past continuous)
2 · Body 1	The surprise: Suddenly… What happened? (past simple)
3 · Body 2	What did you do? What were other people doing? How did you feel?
4 · Conclusion	How did it end? What did you learn?

Model and your task

Day 2 · Writing

What to do: The underlined verbs in the model are the past continuous.

A Day I Will Never Forget

It was a warm Saturday afternoon in July. I was walking home through our village and the sun was shining. Some children were playing football in the street and an old man was reading a newspaper on a bench.

Suddenly I heard a strange noise. A little dog was sitting under a car and shaking. Nobody was looking at it. I stopped and spoke to it quietly, because I wanted it to feel calm.

After a few minutes the dog came out. It had a phone number on its collar, so I called it. A girl ran to us, crying. She was looking for her dog all afternoon.

I felt very happy that day. I learned that being patient solves problems faster than shouting.

A Choose ONE: write your own story

A day I will never forget (120–150 words). Follow the plan and use 5 words from Unit 4.

B Or: an email to a friend (100–120 words)

Introduction: Hi ..., how are you? Sorry I didn't write earlier. Body: Last Saturday at four I was ... when ... Then ... Closing: Write soon! Ask one question.

Use at least 4 sentences with was / were + -ing.

Check before you finish

4 paragraphs · the scene in the past continuous, the events in the past simple · 5 Unit 4 words · every sentence starts with a capital letter and ends with a full stop