The Storm at the Lake

It was a warm Saturday in August. My cousins and I were swimming in a lake near my uncle's house, and the sun was shining. When I was small, I used to think that nothing bad could happen at the lake.

Suddenly the sky turned dark. While we were running to the house, the wind began to blow, and the first drops fell. We did not follow the road, because it was too long, so we ran across a field.

At that moment I heard a voice: my uncle was shouting from the door. We reached the house wet and cold, and my aunt gave us hot tea. We were calm now, and we laughed.

In the end it was an adventure. I learned that a storm can be exciting when you are safe.

A Choose ONE: a storm or an unexpected event

Write 120–150 words. Follow the plan. Use was / were + -ing at least 4 times, the past simple for the events, used to once, when / while / as and 4 words from Units 4–6.
