Unit 10 · Present perfect: affirmative, questions and negatives

Name _____

THE BIG IDEA

Present perfect tells about something that happened in the past but is still true now. We build it with have / has and the past participle.

Present perfect — действие в прошлом, результат которого есть сейчас. Have / has + третья форма глагола.

How we build it

WHICH	PATTERN	EXAMPLE	РУССКИЙ
Yes	have / has + past participle	We've finished our homework.	Мы закончили домашнее задание.
Regular participle	verb + -ed	print → printed · save → saved
Irregular participle	learn each one	make → made · see → seen · do → done
No	haven't / hasn't + participle	She hasn't printed it.	Она не напечатала.
Question	Have / Has + subject + participle?	Have you seen my speakers? Yes, I have.	Ты видел мои колонки?

When we use it

Say the result now: I've tidied my room (it's tidy now).
Сказать о результате.

Ask about a task: Have you done your homework?
Спросить о деле.

Say what is not done: I haven't printed it.
Сказать, что не сделано.

REMEMBER

Something finished, but the result is here now (I've lost my phone = I don't have it now). No exact time: NOT yesterday, NOT last week (that is past simple).

RUSSIAN AND ENGLISH

Russian has no present perfect: «Я убрал комнату» for both the past (yesterday) and the result (now it's clean). In English: I tidied my room yesterday (past simple) but I've tidied my room (present perfect: it's clean now).

Watch out! We often say...

~~I have tidied my room yesterday.~~	I tidied my room yesterday.
~~She has finish her homework.~~	She has finished her homework.
~~Have you saw my speakers?~~	Have you seen my speakers?
~~He haven't printed it.~~	He hasn't printed it.

EASY TRICK

Present perfect = result NOW, no exact time. With yesterday / last week we use the past simple instead.

Try it! Circle the right answer

1. We ___ our homework. (finished / 've finished)
2. He's ___ a mess. (made / maked)
3. Have you ___ my speakers? (saw / seen)
4. She ___ printed it. (haven't / hasn't)
5. Has she done it? Yes, she ___. (has / did)
6. I ___ my room yesterday. (tidied / 've tidied)

Answers: 1 've finished · 2 made · 3 seen · 4 hasn't · 5 has · 6 tidied
