Unit 11 · Present perfect with ever and never

Name _____

THE BIG IDEA

Have you ever ...? asks about your whole life up to now. Never means not at any time in your life.

Have you ever ...? — спрашиваем о всей жизни до сегодняшнего дня. Never — «ни разу в жизни».

How we build it

WHICH	PATTERN	EXAMPLE	РУССКИЙ
Question	Have / Has subject ever participle?	Have you ever been to space?	Ты когда-нибудь был в космосе?
Yes	Yes, I have. / Yes, he has.	Yes, I have.	Да.
No	No, I haven't. / No, he hasn't.	No, I haven't.	Нет.
Never	have / has never participle	I've never seen a volcano.	Я никогда не видел вулкан.
go → been	have been to = went and came back	She's been to Egypt.	Она была в Египте.

When we use it

Ask about experience: Have you ever climbed a mountain?
Спросить об опыте.

Answer: Yes, I have. / No, I haven't.
Ответить.

Say never: I've never been to a desert.
Сказать «никогда».

REMEMBER

ever / never / in your life / up to now → present perfect. last year / yesterday / in 2019 → past simple.

RUSSIAN AND ENGLISH

Russian says «Ты когда-нибудь был в Египте?» with the past «был». In English the question needs HAVE + been: Have you ever BEEN to Egypt? (not 'Did you ever be'; not 'Have you ever went').

Watch out! We often say...

~~Have you ever went to a desert?~~	Have you ever been to a desert?
~~I haven't never seen a volcano.~~	I've never seen a volcano.
~~Did you ever climb a volcano?~~	Have you ever climbed a volcano?
~~Yes, I did. (to 'Have you ever ...?')~~	Yes, I have.

EASY TRICK

Never already means 'not', so no haven't with never. Life experience (no time) → present perfect. A finished time (in 2020) → past simple.
