The rule: Past simple and past continuous (when) · there / they're / their Past continuous = the LONGER action in progress (was / were + -ing). Past simple = the SHORT action that happened in the middle. When I was working, the phone rang. They were smiling when I went in.

WHEN can go at the beginning or in the middle: I was eating when he arrived. = When I was eating, he arrived. After a beginning WHEN-part, put a comma.
WAS / WERE + -ing for the long action; the SHORT action is in the past simple (rang, fell, came in).
THERE (a place; there is / there are) · THEY'RE (= they are) · THEIR (belonging to them). They sound the same but are spelled differently: There is some good news. They're very happy. They will be with their cousins.
Also: see / sea · hear / here · wear / where · write / right.
