The rule: have to / had to · giving directions · why / because have to = it is necessary (we must): We have to hurry. He has to go back. Past: had to — We got lost, so we had to go with Uncle Tom.

No: don't have to (it is not necessary) · Question: Do we have to hurry? Did they have to wait?
Directions (imperatives, no 'you'): Turn left. Turn right. Go straight on at the roundabout. Go over the bridge. The park is next to the bus station.
WHY asks the reason; BECAUSE gives the reason: Why are we lost? Because we didn't read the map carefully.

Watch out (we often say…)

~~He have to hurry.~~	He has to hurry.
~~We had to hurried.~~	We had to hurry.
~~Why are we late? Why we got lost.~~	Because we got lost.
~~Why you are lost?~~	Why are you lost?
